HAITI HOSPITAL APPEAL

I'm taking part in a sponsored event to raise money for The Haiti Hospital Appeal.
The Haiti Hospital appeal has been set up by a group in the local community who want to raise money to build a hospital in Haiti. Haiti is one of the poorest countries in the world. One in five children die before the age of four, 70% of the population are unemployed and suffer from poverty, and around 68% of the population are illiterate. 40% of Haitians don't have any access to primary health care. The hospital will provide an essential life saving service to a community of around 1 million people. Your money will go directly to the building and equipping of this hospital. Please support us with this appeal and provide disaster relief.
